The Texas Legislature does not set the amount of your local taxes. Your property tax burden is decided by your locally elected officials, and all inquiries concerning your taxes should be directed to those officials. The above tax is based on last year's tax rates for the taxing units.

If you are 65 and older or disabled and received a school tax exemption on your home last year from the school listed in the taxing entities above, your school taxes for this year will not be higher than when you first received the exemption on this home. If you improved your property (other than normal repairs and maintenance), your school tax ceiling may increase for improvements.

*If you currently receive a residence homestead exemption, exemption amounts shown on this notice are those provided by law as of the date of this notice.

Visit Texas.gov/PropertyTaxes to find a link to your local property tax database on which you can easily access information regarding your property taxes, including information regarding the amount of taxes that each entity that taxes your property will impose if the entity adopts its proposed tax rate. Your local property tax database will be updated regularly during August and September as local elected officials propose and adopt the property tax rates that will determine how much you pay in property taxes.

Under Section 23.231, Tax Code, for the 2024, 2025, and 2026 tax years, the appraised value of real property other than a residence homestead for ad valorem tax purposes may not be increased by more than 20 percent each year, with certain exceptions. The circuit breaker limitation provided under Section 23.231, Tax Code, expires December 31, 2026. Unless this expiration date is extended by the Texas Legislature, beginning in the 2027 tax year, the circuit breaker limitation provided under Section 23.231, Tax Code, will no longer be in effect and may result in an increase in ad valorem taxes imposed on real property previously subject to the limitation.

Contact the appraisal office if you disagree with this year's proposed value for your property, or if you have any problems with the property description or address information. If the problem cannot be resolved, you have a right to appeal to the appraisal review board (ARB). To appeal, you must file a WRITTEN protest with the ARB before 6/15/2026. Enclosed is a protest form to send the appraisal district office with information to help you in preparing your protest. Before you send this form to the appraisal district, please contact them to determine if your question can be answered first. After your protest has been processed, you will be notified of the date, time, and place of your scheduled ARB hearing.

You may protest online at WWW.PARKERCAD.ORG or by letter, if it includes your name, your property's account numbers, legal description, and the facts and evidence surrounding your protest.
